Service & Tradition

The Hillis Funeral Home began business in 1946, under the leadership of our founder, Loren E. "Doc" Hillis providing funeral services and emergency and invalid ambulance services of Zanesville and the surrounding communities.

Since 1946, the Hillis Funeral Home has been under the watchful eye of Doc Hillis, Jim Hillis and Dave Hillis. In 2013, the leadership was entrusted to Paul Nestor and Tim Combs who embody the professionalism, beliefs, tradition and legacy of honor of our founder and his sons.

We are a locally owned family funeral home and everything we do reflects our ongoing commitment to the community where we live and work. This is our community and our home. Our standards of integrity, professionalism, ethics, honor and fairness has and never will waver.

To be of assistance to others with care, dignity and compassion is what we strive for. There is no higher honor or charge for us as funeral professionals, than to care for those who can no longer care for themselves and their family. We are committed to walk side by side with you before, during and after the loss of a loved one.

Gather-Celebrate-Honor

We believe each and every life is important, and should be celebrated in such a way that their uniqueness shines through, and their legacy and memory is honored. Reflecting upon the life of one who has lived can take many forms. There is no single way to honor the life of your loved one. Reflecting that life can take on many forms.

Whether it's formal, informal, traditional or a unique celebration or party it provides an opportunity for family and friends to gather and support one another in taking the first steps of their healing journey. There are endless possibilities for what a service can be, and how an individual can be honored. Music, special foods, beverages, art, poetry; there are endless possibilities for what the service can be and we honor them.

Our staff is experienced in understanding and graciously accommodating the needs of all beliefs, faiths, lifestyles and relationships. We are here to answer your questions and guide you through the decisions you will need to make, and we encourage you to take your time to figure out the most meaningful and fitting way to honor your loved one and incorporate these elements that you and your family find meaningful. Thank you for allowing the Hillis, Combs & Nestor Funeral Home to be of service to you and your family.
