

Dollie M. Gatewood

November 24, 1926 - February 15, 2019

Dollie M. Gatewood, 92 of Zanesville, died 8:20 PM, Friday, February 15, 2019, at Genesis Morrison House Hospice following a brief illness. She was born Wednesday, November 24, 1926, in Zanesville, the daughter of Edward Gatewood, Sr. and Erma (Young) Gatewood and was a member of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church.

Dollie was born, raised, and resided in Norval Park until her death. She lived her entire life in the home next door to her birth place. The youngest of seven children, Dollie enjoyed working in her yard, cooking, and playing the piano. She had a great sense of humor and was known for her out spoken opinions. Dollie was a Typesetter with the Times Recorder for many years, but will be best remembered as the lady at the meat counter with the bright red hair. She began her career at Powell's Market, worked at Kroger and retired from Mr. Moneysworth (Pick & Save).

Dollie is survived by two nieces: Charlotte (Willard) King of Zanesville; Peggy Stouffer of Cincinnati; one nephew: Jerry (Eliza) Gatewood of Stuart, FL; nine great nieces & nephews; seventeen great-great nieces & nephews; one great-great-great niece and many friends including: Cheryl Smith of Zanesville.

In addition to her parents, Dollie was preceded in death by two sisters: Helen Basford and Dorothy (Bob) Becker; three brothers: Bernard Gatewood, Leonard (Lee) Gatewood and Donald Gatewood; one infant brother: Edward L. Gatewood, II; two nephews: Ronald Basford & Douglas Gatewood and one great nephew.

Graveside Services for Dollie will be held 10:30 AM, Thursday, February 21, 2019, at Woodlawn Cemetery, 548 Pershing Road, Zanesville, with Pastor Howard Thompson officiating. Memorial contributions may be made to Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church, 122 South Seventh Street, Zanesville or Genesis Morrison House Hospice, 713 Forest Avenue, Zanesville, Ohio 43701 in Dollie's memory. “ The Jardine family grew up Norval Park along with the Gatewoods. My oldest brother, Johnie, is 89 and lives in Marne now. He remembers Dollie very well along with the boys. My sister Juanita ( Mrs Everett Krause) is about the same age as one of the girls. My brother Gerald was about the same age as one of the boys. He died a few years ago. I'm the youngest alive (Bob) and remember all the family. i also remember cutting throw the field next to their house to go to Norval Park School every day. Played ball in that field to. Norval Park was a great place grow up
